BANK THUG GANG TAKE FRIGHTENED MAIDS PRISONERS

CURTAIN TO RING DOWN ON PARLEY SOON

Saturday Set as Closing Date for Economic Conference
By GEORGE HAMILTON
CANADIAN PRESS Staff Writer
OTTAWA, Aug. 18.—The Empire Conference definitely rings down the curtain at 10 o'clock on Saturday morning. Then, in final plenary session, all agreements will be signed, sealed and delivered.
All matters in the way of the Anglo-Canadian agreement have been definitely removed. This includes the obstacle of Russian dumping. Except for a few details the British and Canadian delegations are now in complete agreement, and three details will be settled today.
They are understood to deal with outstanding tariff preferences. Experts are now busily drafting agreements. Some, it is expected, will be completed this afternoon. It is planned to have the Anglo-Canadian agreement all ready by tonight.

Young Women Compelled to Ride Running Board of Auto Loaded With Loot of Institution

RELIOT, Wis., Aug. 18.—Seven bank robbers, armed with this frightened girls as shields against gun fire of police, Thursday held up the Second National bank of Reiot and escaped with between $40,000 and $50,000.
Four blocks the girls were forced to ride through busy downtown streets on the running boards of the robbers' automobile. A chief of police and other officers, pistols in hand, watched helplessly as the car drove away from the bank.
Three blocks away the robbers turned the young women to jump from the moving car.
In the bank the robbers, armed with pistols and two sub-machine guns, slugged B. F. Klined, president, and Henry Cook, a customer. The robbers stuffed into two laundry bags the currency with which the bank was to meet several large payments.
Threatened by guns, the girls were forced to help secure up the money. In the midst of the activity, a telephone rang.
Bertie, something strange, Sergeant Fred Stuckert answered the call. It was the police station, inquiring about the burglar alarm.

AVIATION MARK AGAIN CRASHED IN LONG FLIGHT

British Flier in Silver Grey Puss Moth Plane Burns Up Air From Ireland to New Brunswick.
LONDON, Aug. 18.—Captain Mollison's safe landing at Penzance, B. N., caused delight in London and Ireland which regard his fast westward crossing as a new record added to British air achievements.
SAINT JOHN, N. B., Aug. 18.—Fatigue made an end of the first of his long crossing. Captain Mollison, who was flying a Puss Moth plane, was forced to land at Saint John after a 75-hour non-stop flight from London to Saint John. He and his three companions sought a resting place before ascending northward in Alaska, across the Pacific ocean and back home to Britain.
RIGHTED THREE TIMES
Only three times on the flight from the northern Atlantic coast was the machine, christened the "Puss Moth," righted itself. On the first landing, the plane was righted in the Hudson Hope area of British Columbia at 2:30 p.m. M.S.T. after leaving La Roca at 10 a.m. and 10 p.m. later it was righted over Southern B.C., and at 10 p.m. it was righted over the Pacific. The plane was righted a fourth time at 10 p.m. when it landed at Saint John.

PEACE DESCENDS AT DRUMHELLER

DRUMHELLER, Aug. 18.—An agreement was reached just before noon today between the United Mine Workers of America and eight Drumheller coal operators in the wage dispute which commenced early in the spring, went through the process of a conciliation board and a series of conferences when both sides accepted the old wage agreement, which expired April 1 last for a further twelve months.

WORLD IS VERY STRANGE PLACE AT 10 MILES UP

Prof. Piccard, Conqueror of Stratosphere, Reveals Little About Amazing Experience
By R. C. HADFIELD
Associated Press Staff Writer
CAVALIARO DI MONTEZANO, Italy, Aug. 18.—Auguste Piccard and Max Cosyns came down to earth Thursday morning having gained on the border from the great-altitude or attained by man in less than 19 miles.
When they landed they were somewhat shaky, very tired, and exceedingly nervous. Swarms of reporters, including government officials who came by aeroplane, descended on them, but neither Piccard nor Cosyns was in a mood to accept applause.
CARES FOR BALLOON
Prof. Piccard made certain the balloon which had taken him into the stratosphere was well cared for and that his delicate scientific instruments, which may have recorded evidence to indicate whether the universe is dying or immortal, were safe.
Then he telephoned his wife, who until recently had been reluctant allowing him to repeat the dangers he encountered on his first stratosphere flight last year. After that he revealed a little about his amazing experience.
He said that three hours after they took off Thursday morning on the 123-hour flight. They kept on flying 115.8.

GRONAU LANDS BIG PLANE AT RUPERT CITY

Completes Another Leg of "Safe and Sound" Flight Around World
PRINCE RUPERT, B.C., Aug. 19.—Downed down from a cloudless sky, Captain Wolfgang von Gronau brought his huge Dornier Wal flying boat to rest here Thursday afternoon to complete another long leg of his "Safe and Sound" flight around the world.
After a 75-hour non-stop flight from London to Saint John, he and his three companions sought a resting place before ascending northward in Alaska, across the Pacific ocean and back home to Britain.

TAKE-OFF UNCERTAIN

The 28-year-old pilot, who was drafted from the German navy to the air force against his wishes, was uncertain today when he would take-off on his northward voyage before flying across the Pacific. His present plans call for a stopover at Vancouver or Dutch Harbor, Alaska, then across the Kurile Islands, Tokyo, Moscow, and Berlin.

He is expected to arrive in the Soviet Arctic route for world-circumnavigation in the north of the Kurile Islands.

The boy completed Thursday took an air-ship, the first heading west and slightly north from Lake Superior to Hudson Bay, then to the Arctic.

FASCIST HEAD WAITING NEW DEVELOPMENTS

Claims Nazis Will Have at Least 75 Per Cent Representation

By LOUIS P. LACROIX

Copyright, 1932, by Associated Press
BERLIN, Aug. 19.—Adolf Hitler, leader of Germany's 15,700,000 fascist national socialist, declared Thursday that he expects an election of 75 per cent in an election of Berlin.

"Why should I be said, 'wien 1' are already there. The question is whether 75 per cent of Berlin but rather who will have to march of Berlin."

Highly up in the Bavarian mountains, Hitler said, "I have already been waiting further political developments in the country. After the Reichstag meeting in August, I will have at least 15 per cent representation in the government."

"According to the rules of democracy," he said, "any party of 15 per cent of the electorate can claim the right of having the entire government composed of its members."

"Our movement at the last election took 10 per cent. This means that of the 15 per cent necessary for taking over the government we have 5 per cent more."

"Let me put it in terms of business. I have 10 per cent of the capital to be invested in this business. I have 10 per cent of the capital to be invested in this business. I have 10 per cent of the capital to be invested in this business."

"Without a legal government of the Reich, I cannot do anything. I cannot do anything. I cannot do anything. I cannot do anything. I cannot do anything."

"I put into the government business, I put into the government business, I put into the government business, I put into the government business, I put into the government business."

at dinner. That's one thing I can say for my boys. They seemed to be orderly early."

"Come, mother, I want to show you something."

She led the older lady up to Gerald's room in the attic that he liked to call his studio.

Both of this and that painting stood where they could find a footing. Paint brushes, tubes and boxes lay in confusion, some on the floor. Papers, scraps of magazine cuttings, dust. The windows were uncurtained. The floor and two broken chairs when they lifted Jerry's said: "Don't forget that."

"But a boy's room, and his father died four years ago. Should my mother be present at the party or shouldn't it be limited entirely to young people? Isn't it proper for me to give my father some gift such as a ring or a watch? A friend says it is my mother's place to give him something, but I don't think that is right. If I give him a ring, what should I have engraved in it? Is it correct for her to present me with a hope chest either before or when the engagement is announced? Should my gifts to each other be displayed with the other engagement presents?"

Answer—Not only should your mother be present, but announcements and invitations should be sponsored by her as hostess. Among Gerald's is not contained a make engagement gift other than the items, etc., contributed to the bride's shower. The engagement ring purchased by the fiancé and given to the fiancée, may or may not have the initials of both engraved on the inner circle. It is not the custom for a girl to give a ring on the other hand, it is a tradition for the family of the bride to provide the hope chest and the contents. Of recent years, especially among people of limited means, the linen shower arranged by friends, not her relatives, offers a simple and suitable way of outfitting or of completing the hope chest.

LENNIS —BILL LEWIS—

Dennis Clavin has come and gone and they made their farewell brighter than their initial appearance before Edmonton's baseball-going public. Dead-end on the arrival here Wednesday, they did not participate in any of the games and were comparatively well received on hand last night to see them bring their season here to a close.

But those who missed the "bird game" missed what was by far their best display in the three exhibition tilts staged in the city.

Colored clubs have plenty of "color" when they're going right and these boys were in the mood to give the folks a real show last night. They played smart baseball all the way and sent everyone away satisfied.

Which was a mighty good way to wind up the series.

Many tennis followers were handed a real surprise yesterday when Fred Perry, last of the Brits, was eliminated in a first round match by a redoubtable U.S. player, the United States All-Star, in the first round.

The surprise was that Perry, who has been one of the best players in the world, was not yet being acclimated and that he was not yet being acclimated to the heat and humidity of the city to which they are accustomed in the old land.

But their true ability, however it is, should come to light when the U.S. National tourney rolls around next month.

If you're interested, you may have noted that there is talk now that the U.S. National tourney will be held in the future.

Many thought that the "sweat" in the "sweat" was a two-weeked year ago but this time it was all for the benefit of the fight-pyrrhic intelligence.

That the junior division players are not feeling about their intentions to go on to the next level here this year was attested to last night when they were turned out for Scotty Brown's "work" and the "work" was turned out for Scotty Brown's "work".

If that doesn't indicate a real interest in the game, then there is none anywhere.

COLORED CLUB BEATS LOCALS BY 5-1 SCORE

Fine Display of Baseball in Closing Clash at Diamond Park

By BILL LEWIS

Taking full advantage of every break and making their hits count, the Colored Club defeated the local team by a score of 5 to 1.

Both teams were in good form and put on an interesting struggle, the outcome of which was in doubt for most of the game.

The Colored Club's lead was built up by a series of hits in the first four innings, while the local team was unable to get on the board until the fifth inning.

Rialto Team Wins Second Playoff Tilt

Blank Princess Nine For Second Time Last Night by 4 to 0

Taking the lead in the opening frame and then playing an air-tight defensive game while the Princesses battled to score, Tommy Graham's Rialto advanced in the Little Four Junior Baseball final play-off, for the Frank Dwyer trophy by leading the Princesses over their second straight shut-out by a 4 to 0 score.

The Rialto started to hit early and they followed up with some clever basing to running to count from the Princesses.

The Princesses played good ball in the early part of the game, but they were unable to get on the board until the fifth inning.

TOWNSEND ZANDER IS HENRIETTA'S ONLY HOPE OF GETTING POSSESSION OF THE PAVIN YACKET. THAT SHE MUST GET TO PACIFY SCODGE.

NOISE AT THE DOOR AND IN STEPS TOWNSEND HAD WITH THAT $2,000 HE ALL DRESSED BROKE AGAIN.

SO I SEE— AND A PRETTY MESS YOU LEFT ME IN WHEN YOU STOLE THE NECKLACE THAT MY HUSBAND GAVE TO ME— A TOKEN OF HIS LOVE.

AND THEN YOU PAWNED IT— AND WHEN TOM ASKED WHERE IT WAS I HAD TO SAY THAT IT WAS IN MY SAFETY DEPOSIT BOX— FINALLY HE INSISTED THAT I WEAR IT— I LOANED IT IN SCODGE'S PAWN SHOP— I HAD TO PAY SCODGE $2,000— TO BORROW IT FOR ONE NIGHT— AND WHEN MY HUSBAND SAW IT HE LOOKED IT IN HIS EYES AND HE SAID— WHAT AM I DOING WHERE IS THAT PAWN TICKET?

GASOLINE ALLEY

WASHINGTON, CROSSING NEW JERSEY WITH CORNALLIE BEHIND HIM REACHED THE DELAWARE RIVER AT TRENTON AND PUT THAT RIVER BETWEEN HIS TROOPS AND THE BRITISH ARMY. AS WASHINGTON HAD TAKEN ALL THE BOATS WITH HIM CORNALLIE DIDN'T CROSS BUT LEFT HIS HISSING SOLDIERS AT TRENTON AND RETURNED TOWARD NEW BRUNSWICK TO FREEZE OVER.

AND THIS IS THE SPOT NINE MILES ABOVE TRENTON, WHERE WASHINGTON MADE HIS FAMOUS CROSSING OF THE DELAWARE TO ATTACK THE BRITISH.

PURE ON CHRISTMAS NIGHT IT'S WITH THE RIVER FULL OF FLOATING ICE, THIS AMERICAN FORCES LANDED OF THE NEW JERSEY SIDE AND MARCHED TOWARD TRENTON.

HA! HA! SO YOU'RE IN TROUBLE WITH DEAR SWEET LITTLE TOM CAN'T YOU JUST DOWN HERE AND WORRY YOURSELF TO DEATH ABOUT IT?

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

DOG TRAVELS 1000 MILES BACK TO LOCAL BOY

Limping and exhausted, after a thousand miles of travel, Poodle, a pet dog belonging to Freckles McGoosey, returned home last night. The dog's feet were worn sore by the journey and she barely reached her destination.

SEE! CAN YOU IMAGINE THAT! SPOONER FRECKLES WOULDN'T CALL ME UP AN' TELL ME ABOUT IT!

AN' HERE WE THOUGHT POODLE WAS OUT IN CASABA WITH HARRY REEFIELD ALL THIS TIME—

SAY! I JUST READ IN THE PAPER THAT—

YEP! SHE'S HERE! OSCAR SHE MUST HAVE JUMPED OUT THE TRAIN

WHEAT GIVEN SUBSTANTIAL DROP FRIDAY

WINNIEPEG, Aug. 18.—Hedging pressure on the low month and lower wheat prices at Liverpool gave a substantial drop to wheat futures here today. A variety of export buying was also a factor. Values at the close were 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 lower.

October closed at 54 1/2, December at 54 1/2.

The decline was a complete "about-face" from the trend indicated at the opening. Early panic of 1 cent was quickly reversed and buyers brought about heavy lifting pressure which pushed values to the low point.

Today's movement from 10,000 bushels compared to only 47,000 bushels the last week.

A moderate export trade was reported including a cargo of grain sold by the Alberta Wheat Pool to Chicago buyers. This, however, was not enough to take the slack out of the market. Unfavorable crop news reported from Poland and Lithuania also weighed on the market. The market was reported to have been displayed at Liverpool but later shifted for better reports showing excellent harvesting conditions in western Europe.

Good lot sales in cash wheat were completed at spread slightly higher than yesterday. Cash grain trade was unimportant.
